

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
If I were a traveller...	ix
Introduction	xi
Part I – Art cities and cultural districts
1. The art city as a unit of analysis for strategic management. From the government of complexity to the government in evolution Luciana Lazzeretti	3
2. The art city as a HCLocal System and cultural districtualisation processes: the art-restoration cluster in Florence Luciana Lazzeretti	17
3. The cluster of Florence museums and the Network Analysis: the case study of “Museo dei Ragazzi” Luciana Lazzeretti, Tommaso Cinti and Marco Mariani	33
4. Dynamic and localised density dependence in the hotel industry: benchmarking between Florence (1940-1996) and Seville (1945-1999) Luciana Lazzeretti, Giancarla Brusoni and Francesco Capone	61
5. The economic enhancement of cultural and artistic heritage: a focus on Community programmes Luciana Lazzeretti, Francesco Capone and Tommaso Cinti	77
Part II – Art cities and museums
6. The control system in non-profit organisations. A consideration of cultural organisations Barbara Sibilio	113
7. The enhancement of art assets through the establishment of foundations: the case of the Marino Marini Foundation in Florence Francesca Papini and Niccolò Persiani	139

8. Opificio delle Pietre Dure in Florence (1882-1905) Marco Mainardi and Massimo Valeri	163
9. The museum of the Opera of Santa Maria del Fiore: the history of the first twenty-five years of activity Fabio Ciaponi and Francesco Dainelli	185
10. The network of resources in museum management: the “New Palazzo Vecchio” in Florence Elena Livi	207
List of references	223
Lists of tables and figures	239
List of contributors	241